
The investigation within the Sheriff's Office of the conduct of its employees, and the County Attorney's prosecution of a criminal case, are two entirely separate matters. If a person is arrested by Sheriff's Deputies files a citizen's complaint against those deputies, such action will in no manner affect the prosecutor's independent decision to proceed with the criminal action.

I have read and understood the above statement.

FINAL OUTCOME AFTER INVESTIGATION

Unfounded: No verifiable factual base for complaint.

Exonerated: The alleged act occurred, but was justified, legal, and/or proper.

Not Sustained: Insufficient evidence to prove or disprove the allegation.

Sustained: Improper conduct, as supported by the preponderance of the evidence, was committed by the accused employee.

Misconduct Not Alleged in Complaint: Acts of misconduct not alleged in the complaint were discovered and supported by a preponderance of the evidence.

Policy Failure: Alleged act was committed but employee's actions were consistent with Department policy/procedure. However, policy and procedure corrections are called for to address the nature of the complaint. (May not use this one. Need to double-check with Sheriff and Undersheriff).

Administrative Inquiry: Circumstances not adequately covered by the dispositions above, and as deemed necessary by the Sheriff.
